

Thompson River University

TRU is a leading destination in Canada for international students. International enrollment now exceeds 3,500 students from 100+ nations worldwide. The university is engaged in 60 bilateral student exchange agreements with partner institutions around the world. TRU is also a member of the Washington, DC-based International Student Exchange Program (ISEP). Through ISEP, TRU students are also able to take advantage of more than 200 exchange opportunities around the world.

At Thompson Rivers University, student success is our priority. We empower our students to reach their goals with on-campus and online learning options, individualized student services, hands-on learning opportunities, and a diverse, inclusive environment.

The Department of Communication and Visual Arts is the place where students find programs in media studies, public relations, journalism, and visual arts.

Students will find a balance here, as they encounter theories and big ideas in their field of study and develop their applied creative and professional skills, preparing them for future career and educational experiences.
